7/20/2012 Jesus

Brothers and sisters. It is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my heart. Children never fear coming to me with your trials. Do not fear anything except what will cause you to sin. Do not labor away on useless things, only to find out later your efforts produced no fruit. Instead toil away in the garden, bringing souls to your Heavenly Father. It is in his heart where all of his children should be united. I tell you the truth. Heaven and earth can surely pass away but my words will never pass away. You are loved remember this. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

7/21/2012 Jesus

Brothers and sisters. It is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my heart. Children the hour is indeed coming when I will make all things new. As to when this hour is, do not worry, for even the angels in Heaven do not know. I ask you to begin preparing your hearts as if I were coming tonight. For the appointed hour is near. But to when this will be upon you. Suffice to say, am I not already in your midsts. Did I not tell you, whenever two or more are gathered in my name, I am there. So do not be afraid of my coming. I only warn you, to not be caught off guard like the land owner, who went away and left his house unguarded. A thief broke in and stole what he had saved. It will be the same for you, if you remain asleep. A thief will come in and rob you of what you have. Then my children you will mourn that you were not prepared. So prepare your hearts now. Remove everything that separates you from my heart. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

Do not hesitate wondering what you need. Everything that is needed will be given. You only need to trust with hearts that are contrite. Ready yourselves. The battle is ready and you must armor yourselves with holy virtues. Especially the virtue of faith, hope, and love. These will equip you far in battle. Call upon your Heavenly angels for assistance. We are ready at your calling. I love you and am ready to assist any child who calls on me for help.

Brothers and sisters. It is I your Heavenly King calling each of you unto my heart. Do not despair in the coming days. Trust in my mercy for you. Every child who comes to me with a repentant heart will receive my mercy and forgiveness. Do not worry about the difficulties that lie ahead. Graces will be given to help aid you. No one should be lost to me. That is why I tell you, do not despair. No matter how scarlet your sins, my mercy is greater than your many sins. Fear nothing except that which separates us. Namely your lack of trust in me. If you start to become fearful and question my words, simply look at my wounds. Remember I loved you even to my death. Brothers and sisters you are loved. Remember this. I love you and give you my priestly blessings.

Brothers and sisters. It is I your Heavenly King calling each of you unto my heart. To what can I compare Heaven too? It is like a king who goes out and invites everyone to the great feast. As each person enters through the door, he hands them gifts. They are made to feel welcomed and special. No one is excluded. To what can I compare Heaven too? It is like a baker who makes bread. The dough starts out very small formed in his hands. Then set out to grow and flourish. Wonderful to behold and life giving. Children you live with your hearts focused on your earthly things. Begin to fix your hearts on the things of Heaven. It is here that you belong. It is in the Chambers of my Heart that you are loved. Know this. I love you and give you my priestly blessings.

7/25/2012 St. Michael

Chosen people. It is I St. Michael coming to sound the trumpets and awaken mankind from his slumber. Arise children and stand erect. Do not forfeit your inheritance by giving away what has been purchased for you by the Blood of the Lamb. Freely you were given this gift. This sacrifice of love. Freely you must chose to accept it. I encourage each of you to faithfully open your hearts and with gladness accept everything that has been granted to you. By the Blood of the Lamb your salvation was purchased. What greater gift can be received by mankind, than the Son of man offering his life in exchange for their sins? Children ponder this. I love you and place my shield before any child who calls upon my assistance

7/26/2012 St. Anne

Children. It is I St. Anne coming to talk about the importance of bringing up holy families. Do not think that children do not require lessons on faith. My dear children, children require many lessons as well as examples to follow. Parents take your vocation with all seriousness. What you sow today, will be tomorrows fruits. The family is under attack today. You must work diligently to protect this. The family unit is important. Traditions are carried on from one generation to the next. Every person in a family has an important job. Each member must work together to practice virtues. To give and receive love. To become tomorrows saints. Children begin to read scripture with each other at night. If you have small children tell them stories that will help them grow in faith. Morals and values are lessons that can be taught at any age. A child is never too old or too young to learn about the great mysteries of God. Parents set good examples for your children. Children, listen to your parents and keep God's commandments. Then you will become holy. I love you and pray for your families to seek my Grandson in all things.

Brothers and sisters. It is I your Heavenly King calling each of you unto my heart. Fear not the coming hour which has been foretold to you. This hour must come, but I tell you fear not. Therefore prepare ahead of the hour whilst you still have my mercy with you. The time will come when I will pass judgement. No stone will I leave unturned. So begin preparing your hearts and encourage your brothers and sisters to do likewise. How do you prepare? Do not worry about your physical wants. Do not focus on what you are to eat or drink. Where you are to lay your head. Prepare your hearts by renouncing all that is evil. Turn away from sin and follow my commandments. Do not labor unnecessarily on Sunday. Do not fornicate or commit adultery. Do not murder. Honor your father and mother. Do not steal or speak falsely about any one. Honor and love your God above all else. This brothers and sisters are the laws set forth in stone. Still you wander aimlessly about with a great distance between us. Change your hearts now. Return to the ways of God not men. What you do in darkness, will be brought to light. Justice will be vindicated. Mankind will see this day come. I love you and give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

7/30/2012 Jesus

Brothers and sisters. It is I your Heavenly King calling each of you unto my heart. Children ask and you will receive. Seek and you will find. Knock and the door will be opened for you. Do not fear my justice. I have come tonight to prepare you for this hour. Repent of all injustices. Then ask for my forgiveness with hearts that are fixed on changing. Forgiveness and mercy shall be yours. Do not sin. Do not allow yourself to be the cause of another to sin. How will you fare, if you do not change of your evil ways? Children you must look closely at your souls. Do not forget that you are both body and soul. Look closely at what you have accustomed yourself with. If tomorrow everything was taken from you, to what would you give your heart too? Answer these questions and you will quickly see where you have allowed yourself to stray too. Now is the time to return to my Sacred and Merciful Heart. All that you need I will provide for you. Ask and you will receive. Seek and you will find. I encourage you to make frequent holy hours before the Blessed Sacrament. Here dwells the true manna from Heaven present for all of mankind to behold and worship. Do not think that what has been given to you, is of no value. Everything given by God carries the greatest of value. It is your man made treasurers, that contain little value to you. Do not focus your efforts on the things that quickly pass. Instead use this time to focus on your Heavenly treasurers. The fruits of faith. Namely the virtues of faith, hope and charity. These virtues will afford you the greatest of treasurers. Love. I love you and place my shield before all who call upon my assistance.

I am the Good Shepherd who laid down my life for my sheep. Those who follow my words are my sheep. I love you and give you my priestly blessings.

8/2/2012 Blessed Mother

Children. It is I your heavenly mother. My dear little ones. May peace enter into your families through prayer, and a return to the sacraments. Your families must become a tabernacle for my Son. Begin living the messages that have been given to you. Then you will be prepared when my Son comes. Children do not rely on tomorrow to change. You only have this present moment. Change your hearts now. Again return to a people who worship God with hearts that are pure and selfless. Today you are easily distracted by the evil one through pride. You must repent and turn away from all evil. You are children of God. You belong to your Heavenly Father through the sacrifice of my only Son. This my children is the truth that you must seek. Every breath was taken with much difficulty out of love for you. Begin to take this truth into the depths of your souls. You are priceless. Begin to recognize this in yourselves and in each other. Then come to me. Unite all of this to my Sacred and Merciful Heart. A heart that was pierced open, so my mercy could be poured out for the salvation of all. Children ask and you will receive. Seek and you will find. Everything you ask of me I shall grant to you, if it will help you to prosper in your faith in me. Seek out my will in all things. Then you will find your way back home to my heart. I love you my children and I give you my blessings.

Your strength will come from the lessons given to us by our Good Teacher. His words and laws are everlasting. Follow him with a great desire to appease His Sacred and Merciful Heart. Then offer all of this for your brothers and sisters who are lost in their sinful ways. What greater gift can you give another than to offer yourself. Brothers and sisters. It is I your Heavenly king calling each of you unto my heart. Children two men are walking down a road. One many carries the burdens given to him by other people. The other man carries his own burdens of the day. Which man is doing my will. Each man is carrying his cross but I tell you the truth the first man is doing my will because he is carrying the load of his brother and thereby resembling me. What good does it a man to only think of his own lot and forget the lots of his brothers and sisters. What good does it a man to concern himself with only the affairs that bring about comforts and fortunes for his own personal gain and think little of his neighbors struggles. Go out and take care of my Father's children. Then you will receive a just reward. Make peace with your siblings and peace I will bestow on you. Feed your brothers and sisters and you will also receive nourishment. Whatsoever you do to a child in my name, I will place this in my Fourth Chamber. Such acts of kindness and compassion will not be overlooked. Men may overlook your deeds but my Father in Heaven will not overlook your efforts. I love you and I place you in the Chambers of my Sacred and Merciful Heart tonight. Know this.

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Brothers and sisters. Do not despair in the coming days. Have I not told you that you are loved. You need not worry about upcoming events. I have not given you tomorrow yet. Remain in the present moment only. Do not fear anything, except that which removes you from my grace. Then my child, you must come to me with the desire to make amends to my Sacred and Merciful Heart. You must show true contrition and complete trust in my mercy. Those souls who trust in me, should never fear. It is in the trusting soul that I receive my greatest pleasure in. Place yourself in the Chambers of my Sacred Heart by uniting yourself to my will. When you unite yourself to me you are giving me your "yes". Then I can place you in my First Chamber of my Heart. I can begin to form your heart as a potter forms clay. 8/17/2012 Blessed Mother

What insults He suffers and indignities are said against Him. This children is what wounds my immaculate heart the most. The complete indifference children have to my Son's suffering and death. If only these children could understand what love was offered in His sacrificial suffering. (I can see Our Lady at the foot of the cross. Jesus is giving his mother to us. He is loving us even at the very moment of his death.) No longer would they be indifferent to his teachings. I love you and give you my motherly blessings. Know this.

8/18/2012 Jesus

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Children be joyful for the time of renewal is coming. I will come and make all things new again. Be ready to receive your King with hearts that are pure. Share this joy with everyone. All children belong to my Sacred Heart. I did not bear my cross for only a chosen few. I bore my cross for the salvation of all. That is why I have said, no one should be lost to my Heart. My mercy is for all. My redemption is for every child who seeks this. Especially the children who come with hearts that are contrite. These children please me most because they have a desire to appease my Heart. They understand that they have offended my justice, and still they seek my mercy because they have chosen to trust my promises of mercy. All children should be as trusting as this. I tell you the truth, no matter how scarlet the sin, my mercy is greater. Again I tell you if a sinner will trust in my mercy they will have nothing to fear at their judgement. It is my mercy that they will receive. I will place them at my right side to receive their just reward. Remember this. I love you and give you my priestly blessings.

(during this message I could see a trusting sinner at judgement before Jesus. Jesus was sitting on a chair with a scepter in his hand and a crown on his head. When the trusting sinner approached, Jesus opened his arms. His Sacred and Merciful Heart was exposed. He embraced this soul as if he had never sinned. Jesus escorted him to his right where men and women in white robes were standing ready to greet this person and welcome him in Heaven. How much Jesus wants us to trust in his mercy)

8/19/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Pray with earnest. Always working hard to prepare your hearts for my Son. How happy you will be when you are accompanied to Heaven by your guardian angel. No longer will you suffer trials. Your hardships will be no more. Too easily do you become accustomed to what is bad for your soul. In earnest you must work. Now is not the time to be wasteful with the graces you are being given. (our lady is pointing to our world. How we are in a time of mercy.) I can only hold back the hand of justice through my motherly pleas a little while longer. You must become children whose hearts are fixed on God. Unite everything to my Son. Take time to pray daily. Especially contemplating on His passion. The quicker you begin to take notice of your surroundings the easier it will be for you to discern what is healthy or unhealthy. Remember to unite all of this to my Son. He will bless your efforts. My children this is the first step in armoring yourselves. You must prepare your hearts. I love you and I give you my motherly blessings. Know this.

8/23/2012 Jesus

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Listen to my words. They are truth. Children if you forsake what is right for selfish desires, where will you stand when I come in all my glory? Many will cry out to me. Lord, Lord, did I not know you? Did I not speak about you? Then I will ask them show me your fruits. What have you done to grow the kingdom. Graces you were given and you come to me with empty hearts. Away with you you evil doers. Children what good will it do you to gain this world and lose the next? Be fruitful. Tend to your soil with the graces I have given you. Grow strong trees with roots that are firmly planted so wind nor rains can uproot you or knock you over. Then you will withstand the tests and good fruit will you produce at the appointed hour. Until then I warn you to be diligent and work you do not know the hour I will come. I love you and give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

(I saw a soul who was standing before Jesus. This soul had a straw basket with a rotting apple and some kind of yellow fruit. Flies were buzzing around. He held his basket as if to present it.)

Our Lady's Birthday

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. How often do you go about your day and recognize the gifts that have been given to you? How many times have you overlooked these graces? Children you must begin to see. Not with human eyes but through the eyes of your soul. Everything around you was given to you from God. Even my birth was a gift to my parents and a gift to each of you. From my womb your salvation was brought forth. I am the Blessed Tabernacle brought forth from God as a gift to humanity. How many gifts are being discarded today. Each of you are a gift to one another because you are here to assist each other. You are here to learn love from each other. To learn patience and wisdom. So many gifts are given and so many of these graces are wasted or used for selfish pleasures. Children use your gifts wisely. Especially the gift of your time. Each present moment is a gift from your Lord. Take care my little ones and know that you are truly blessed and loved. I love you and I give you my motherly blessings tonight. Know this.

9/9/2012 Jesus

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Brothers and sisters, I ask each of you to ponder what I am asking of you. In the beginning, I asked for you to give me your "yes". To freely accept my will for you. Have you done this? Why are you still waiting to unite yourself to me? Are you concerned for your temporal wants? Do you still believe you have time, even though I have told you repeatedly tomorrow has not yet been given to you? I ask you again tonight to give me your "yes". To offer me your present moment. Do not worry about your needs. I will give you what you need. Graces I will bestow upon you. You only need to ask. Offer me your "yes" and I will bless your efforts. I will unite your "yes" to my Sacred and Merciful Heart. Here I will shelter you and nourish your soul with life giving bread. No longer do I wish for you to hesitate. Enter into the Chambers of my Heart where you will be counted among my elect. I will sanctify your deeds and turn them into fruits. To be shared with all. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

9/10/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Children cherish the time you have been given. Take each moment and use it for God's greater glory. Love each other with kindness. Be slow to anger and quick to forgive. Do not harbor insult. Do not talk unsavory about each other. Remember everyone is your brother and sister. God has placed everyone in your life to bring you closer to His Heart. When you love each other you are loving my Son. What you offer each other you are offering my Son. So if you give insult, ask yourself is this what I give to my Lord today? If you are thoughtless or unkind this is how you treat your King? Children today is the only moment you have been given. Take this moment to glorify your Lord who has sacrificed so much for you. Tonight I wish for you to pray the Lord's prayer. Say each word slowly thinking of my Son's loving sacrifice He made to his Father on your behalf. When you come to the words forgive us our trespasses, truly ask for forgiveness. When you promise to forgive others truly mean it. Immediately forgive everyone. Ask my Son for help if you struggle. Remember the prayer you received by your Heavenly Father in the beginning. (the Heavenly Father Prayer) Say this prayer to help you see each other as brothers and sisters. In Heaven you will behold each other with a total surrender to God's all encompassing love. Children how happy you will be when you begin to forgive and live each moment united to my Son your saving Lord. I love you my children and I give you my motherly blessings. Know this.

9/11/2012 Jesus

the flesh. You are not only flesh. Instead worry about what can destroy your soul. Bring everything to the foot of my cross. What you unite to me, I will bless. I will place all of this in the Chambers of my Heart. What you place at the foot of my cross, I myself will testify to and bless. So do not worry about that which you cannot control. Worry only about those things that will separate us. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

Children when you encounter the love of my Son's saving grace you will be at peace. Only then will you be able to understand what the Lord has in store for those who love Him. I love you my little ones and I pray for your hearts to be open tonight.

9/13/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Children remain in my Son's heart. Continually place yourselves there by giving him your "yes". The more you strive for perfection the greater your joy will be. You my little ones are called to be perfect just as your Heavenly Father is perfect. My children understand that you have weaknesses. That is why I tell you to strive for this. Always remembering my Son's Merciful and Compassionate Heart for his Father's children. When you fall then you must confess your sins and trust in my Son's mercy. He is mercy. I love you my little ones and I give you my motherly blessings. Know this.

Children when you begin to trust in my Heart. All will be realized. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

9/15/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Children be united in one faith. That of my Son. All who believe in him will have eternal life. My children, I suffered many sorrows walking through my journey. Often I prayed in silence always trusting in God's providence. Children, you must begin to trust in the Lord even when you suffer. My children, you are never alone in your trials. Everything is known to God. Nothing is hidden from Him. My children, embrace your crosses just as my Son did. If you are beside a brother or sister who is suffering then comfort them during their trials. Being a silent witness is a grace with much merit. How often can you accompany someone through prayers. What kindness can you share simply being available. I love you my little ones. I place each of you in my mantle of motherly love. Know this.

9/16/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Have great faith. Children, you must become children who can give testimony of their faith to those who are without. Some of my children are walking next to you and they remain far from my Son. You cannot keep what you have been given to yourselves. Faith must be shared. Be united to my Son in all things. To be united to my Son means that you are also in fellowship with his bride. (the church) No one can enter Heaven without going through my Son first. How then can you walk among your siblings and remain quiet. Share what you have been given. Teach others about my Son's mercy. Show everyone His love through your example. Give testimony to the truth. Then my children you will be living in fellowship with each other in union with my Son. I love you my children and I give you my motherly blessings. Know this.

9/17/2012 Jesus

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King calling each of you unto my heart. Brothers and sisters. Tonight I ask each of you to reflect on the lessons you have been receiving. Much has been taught to you and still you have much to learn. Do not allow yourselves to think that the lessons can be practiced at a later time. I desire for you to put them into practice now. You must become comfortable (familiar) with what is being asked of you, so you will be ready for what is still to come. Make a commitment to begin to change what you are doing that is keeping you from moving forward towards my Sacred and Merciful Heart. If it is fear, I tell you again to fear not. My Heart is full of compassion for my Father's children. If pride is causing you to remain where you are at, then start to ask yourself "why have I allowed myself to focus on me rather than my brothers and sisters?" I tell you the truth, pride comes from a lack of love. When you understand that love is sacrificial, you will see that a lack of love causes pride. If you are unable to forgive, remember how I forgave my enemies. Look at how quickly I forgive all of your offenses. It is by your own measuring stick that I will measure you. Do not be so query as to forget the road you are traveling. So few children remain firmly planted in fertile soil. Much is being wasted today. Return to my heart. That is what I desire. Give me your "yes" and I will place you in the First Chamber of my Heart. Here I will begin to mold you and break your heart of stone. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

The man looked up and smiled. He had seen so many good and wonderful things he had trouble naming them. The old man then asked about the people he met. Again the man smiled because he met so many kind and wonderful people. The old man remarked that he was on a good journey. (the old man smiled as he said this, while he was touching the man's shoulder) Brothers and sisters what kind of a journey are you on. listen. You must be ready to die of yourself. To remove everything that leads you from His Heart. You must die of your selfishness and pride. Through his grace you can replace selfishness with selflessness, pride will become humility. Children, you only need to ask to receive. Everything will be given to you according to my Son's will. Begin to accept everything with a heart (that is) open. Learn to give freely of yourself. Then my Son will give freely to you. I love you and give you my motherly blessings. Know this.

9/28/2012 Jesus

Brothers and Sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Repose near my Heart. This is where I desire each of my Father's children. To come before me and place their trust in me. I have told you, I am meek and humble of heart. You must be careful to discern what you have chosen to surround yourselves with. What choices you are making? Ask for the gift of wisdom and I shall place wisdom in your midst. When you receive wisdom, be fruitful with your decisions. How often I place gifts among many of you, only to have my gifts ignored or used with malice. To what should that outcome be? Children, do not think for a minute that what you have set before you is done without purpose. No. Everything has a purpose. It is what you do with each moment, that determines whether you gain treasure or punishment. Seek treasures. How much merit can be gained a person, when they take a difficult situation and bring joy and love from it. Even in my suffering there was joy. I knew what was awaiting each of you. How I loved you. How I longed to unite myself to each of my Father's children. Only through my surrender and ultimate "yes" to my Father was your salvation won. Nothing is in vain, when done with a loving heart. Just as no sacrifice is too small or too large, when done for the salvation of another. Remember this. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings.

9/29/2012 Jesus

Brothers and sisters, I am the Lamb slain for your freedom. Children, rejoice and be glad. Take comfort in my words. I am the Resurrection, who ever believes in me will have eternal life. Brothers and sisters, do not take root in this world. For you belong to the next. Do not make a dwelling place here among the rocks. It is my Heart that I wish for you to dwell. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings tonight.

9/29/2012 St. Michael

Children, it is I St. Michael coming to sound the trumpets and awaken mankind from his slumber. Here me oh children and do not grow weary. The battle has not ended. Still you must wager on with steadfast faith. Many martyrs sing out the praises of their King of whom they shed their blood for. Much was given by their faith. Much will be necessary from this generation too. Do not falter while the road is before you. Do not trip, lest you fall into temptation. Gird yourselves with truths. Let your faith be your emblem. A shield, will I place before anyone who cries out for help. I love you children and I am praying for your journey.

9/30/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. How happy are the children that follow in the ways of my Son. Assuredly the Kingdom of Heaven is theirs. My little ones, do not fear what is to come. No one has been given tomorrow yet. That is why you must be present in each moment. Only in the present, can you choose. You cannot change the decisions you made yesterday. Just as you cannot make a decision on tomorrow. Tomorrow may not come. Live each moment united to my Son, giving your "yes" freely. Then you will enter into the Chambers of His Heart. How loved you are. This my children, I wish for you to understand. That you are loved. Place all of your trust in my Son. His words are everlasting. I love you and I give you my motherly blessings. Know this.

10/1/2012 Jesus

My peace I give to you, Brothers and sisters. I am the Lamb slain for your freedom. Hear my words. They are truth. Nothing should come between us. You must begin to remove those obstacles that are keeping you from my Heart. You must conquer your desires of the flesh. You must put away all pride. How quickly will a child become lost when they allow sin to take root in their soul. Come to me, you who are heavy burdened. Place your sorrows upon my cross. It was my love for each of you, that made carrying my cross bearable. Even when I fell, I got up for you. So place your difficulties at my feet. Give me your worries and sufferings. I will unite all to the Chambers of my Most Sacred and Merciful Heart. It is in your complete surrender to me, that the Gates of Heaven are opened. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

10/1/2012 St Therese

Children of God. It is I St. Therese (the little flower) coming to bring you greetings of good cheer. Children strive for Heaven. Learn from nature. How effortlessly the flowers bloom and the birds sing. Everything giving glory to God. Be simple with your prayers.

Ask with a trusting heart. Accept everything you receive with love. Our dear Jesus suffered so much for us. Because of this selfless act of love we can be assured of Heaven, to any child who puts their trust in him. I love you dear children and I am praying for your earnest hearts of love for God and each other.

10/2/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Children, tonight I wish to teach you about sacrifice. If you wish to understand sacrifice simply look to my Son. What greater sacrifice could be seen than His? He unselfishly gave His own life for the ransom of many. I too sacrificed, my only Son for your salvation.

Children, you too can sacrifice for others. Begin by sacrificing your tongue. Deny yourself the desire to gossip or saying something curt. How quickly you will grow in temperance. Sacrifice a meal, and give to the poor. Think of the treasure you will grow by helping others. Sacrifice your time, by listening to those who are in need. My children what fruits you will bear for the Kingdom when you love each other. My little ones, make sacrificing a joy. You can do this by uniting all of your sacrifices to my Son. Whenever you are united to my Son, you are doing his will. He will fill you with graces and you will taste the joys of Heaven. I love you my little ones and I am praying for your peace.

10/3/2012 Jesus

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Children, understand the importance of the lessons you are receiving. They are a road map that leads to my Heart. It is my compassion that causes me to continue to reach out to you. My mercy that I wish to remain with you always. Even when you are far from my Heart, I remain waiting for your return. Children, can you begin to believe in what I am saying? My Heart is opened for you. Ready to pour graces into your soul. You must open your hearts and receive what I am offering you. You must give me your "yes" so I can place you in the Chambers of my most Merciful and Compassionate Heart. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

10/4/2012 Jesus

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Children, let your voices unite for the good of each other. Let your words carry much strength. Just like a mighty sword ready to do battle. A battle for truth. My truth. Do not let your words be nothing more than serendipitous homages to yourselves. Do not shout so that your words carry no value. Instead come as a wind (I see a wind sweeping across the ocean at night changing the tides and causing waves to change direction) that comes through quietly changing the course, steering souls to my Heart. Mankind has fought against itself, always trying to silence the voice within. I have come tonight to remind you that my truths are not mankind's truth. My ways are not your ways. I have come as the Merciful Savior. Ever present among you. Soon I will come to judge this generation. Speak the truth and do not fear. I have told you that I am with you. This has not changed. I love you. This is truth. Do not fear the coming trials. These are necessary for the awakening of the sleeping children. I have said, no one should be lost to my Heart. I have come tonight to set a flame in your hearts. To set a direction for you to travel. The course you must take is the road that leads to the Chambers of my most Sacred and Merciful Heart. Know this. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings.

10/5/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Children, to be happy you must serve The Lord with open hearts. Freely giving of yourselves. Then my children, my Son will reward your efforts. Happiness comes to those children, who bear the crosses of others, with a joyful resolution to help save souls. When you accept the crosses of others, you will grow in virtues. Look at how my Son bore a cross for the sins of his brothers and sisters. Salvation was won. This is because He willingly bore others sins. His Heart was full of joy at the moment of death because He gave everything to his Father. Nothing was held back. How glorious the day when the Gates of Heaven were opened for all to enter. So my children, begin to see suffering as a joy. How many merits are received and treasures rewarded to those children who resemble my Son. It is in giving that you truly receive. I love you my little ones and I give you my motherly blessings. Know this.

10/6/2012 Jesus

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Children, fear not the coming trials. Such occurrences must come, but fear not. I have come as the Merciful Savior. Ready to place you in the Chambers of my most Sacred and Merciful Heart. Do not wait for the coming hour, to begin to change and repent. You do not know what hour I may come. I will tell you that I will come like a clap of thunder, ready to pass judgement on this generation. My justice will descend on everyone until no stone remains unturned. That is why I keep telling you, to repent and trust in my mercy. Now is the time to unite yourselves to me. To take shelter in the abode of my mercy. It is in the Chambers of my Heart that I will forgive you of your sins. Here I will pour mercy into your souls until your cup overflows. I will remember what you have done to the least of your brothers and sisters. Here, your treasure lies protected. Where neither rust nor moth will take it away. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

10/7/2012 Jesus

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Hold what I have told you near to your heart. Reflect on my words often as you move throughout your day. Understand that what I have told you is for your benefit. It is to help draw you closer to my Sacred Heart. I desire that nothing come between us. So, again I ask you to remove everything that comes between us. It is in the shelter of my most Compassionate Heart, that I wish to place you. It is the abode of my Mercy, that I wish to pour out upon you. Everything I have, has been given to me by my Father in Heaven. How much I desire to give you. I know that you are weak. Ask me for strength. I know you struggle with doubt. Ask me for an increased faith. I see you are tempted. Ask me to help you overcome your temptations. Ask of me anything and I will grant you whatever you ask of me, if it is within my will for you. Your temporal needs are not as important as you think. Yes, you have a need for shelter and food. Even the birds of the air have shelter. Are you not more important than these? But you already focus too much attention on your temporal needs and very little on your spiritual needs. I have come to heal all of your ills. I have come to strengthen you in your weaknesses. The more you accept my will, the easier it will be for you on the last day. The more you unite yourself to me, the quicker you will advance through the Chambers of my most Sacred and Compassionate Heart. Remember I did not come to condemn this world, but rather to save it. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

10/8/2012 Jesus

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Children, look around and see if you are practicing what I have taught you. Are you beginning to change what you are surrounding yourselves with? Are you contemplating my love for you? Have you recently looked into your hearts, to see what you have chosen to place first? Tonight I am asking you to take an account of where you have placed yourselves. Yes, where you have placed yourselves. You have the gift of free will. It is your choice to give me your "yes". Do you place yourself in the Chambers of my most Sacred and Merciful Heart, by offering me your "yes". Do you accept my will for you and daily pick up your cross? Are you striving to follow me or have you grown weary already? Do not be discouraged by my asking you these questions. I ask this because I desire to give you graces. To receive what I am offering you, first you must empty yourselves of everything, that is keeping you from me. I desire to be united to you through the Chambers of my Heart. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

10/8/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. How happy you will be when you join in the banquet prepared for you since the world began. Children, do not forsake the Kingdom for your graven idols. Do not place your things before my Son. Remember you are only here a short time. My children, you belong in Heaven where happiness and love exists. Children, you will be happy because you will be united to God for all eternity. I love you and I am praying for each of my children. Know this.

10/9/2012 God the Father

My people, it is I your Heavenly Father, coming tonight to encourage you to reform your hearts. Learn from the example my Son set out before you. What have you learned? This I will ask each of you. What have you learned and what did you do with the knowledge you have received? Did you follow the laws given to you? Were you charitable to the least of your brothers? My children I ask only what I have given freely to you. I only ask what I know you can give. What I come with is hope for your darkened world. No child should be lost to me. I love each of you with an everlasting love. Chosen and cherished you will always be to my Heart. I love you my children and I give you my blessings.

10/10/2012 God the Father

My people, it is I your Heavenly Father. I call each of my children to draw near to my Heart. Come and remain before me united to my will through your daily surrender. My children, I love each of you. In my heart I formed you. My spirit I breathed into you a soul. You are made in my Image and Likeness, because I made you out of my Heart. I created you to love. To be joyful. Never do I want any child to be separated from me. It is my desire to be united to each of you for eternity. To celebrate love. The love that was born out of a selfless act of total surrender. A Son who bore the afflictions of all. This is the love of which I speak about tonight. To give of oneself without regard to the return. To abide by my laws. To serve one another. This is where I ask you to place yourselves. In the center of my Heart you will find a Father who loves his children with a totality that cannot be understood. Even after generations have gone by, my love will still not be understood. Rejoice in this my children. That you have a Father who loves you. In my Heart, I wish for you to remain. I love you and I give you my blessings tonight.

10/11/2012 God the Father

My people, it is I your Heavenly Father. Hear me my child I have called you out of nothing and breathed life into your soul. You are mine. I have chosen you. Do you not understand the depths of my love? It is unending. My love bears graces for your soul. My love creates. My love restores. Even to the ends of the earth my love seeks you out. Accept this into your hearts. What I ask of you, I ask out of love. Trust in what I have placed before you. Trust in my plan. I give you the gift of salvation laid before you in the shape of a wooden cross. A cross that was surrendered to me by my Son for the salvation of all. My child, this is what I wish for you to accept tonight. I love you and I give you my blessings.

10/12/2012 God the Father

My people, it is I your Heavenly Father, coming tonight to talk about perseverance. Something lacking in a great many of my children. Perseverance means to pursue or go forward with much effort. I want you to begin to persevere in your faith. Your prayers and daily sacrifices. Begin to persevere in your duties as parents and children. Brothers and sisters. This will take effort. You easily become distracted with the things around you. You become fatigued and quit before you have had the opportunity to see the graces yielded from your efforts. If you struggle, do not be afraid to ask for help. If you feel that you are failing in one or more areas, do not give up. Trust that I will send you strength to overcome your barriers. My children, you need to grow in virtues. Let this be a lesson that you yield fruit in. I love you and I give you my blessings.

10/13/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Prepare to open your hearts to my Son tonight. Remove all hatred and replace it with love. Remove all indifference and replace it with joy filled hope. Remove all envy and replace it with servitude. Be joyful as you pick up your daily cross. Come before The Lord with complete trust in His mercy and compassion. Children, you must begin to change what is in your hearts that is evil and persisting. Ask my Son to replace what you have removed and fill you with graces. Keep in mind that He is the Great Physician. Will he not heal you of your afflictions? Yes, my children. He loves you. Trust in his mercy and love. I love you my little ones and I pray for your continued efforts. Know this.

10/14/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Begin each day in prayerful reflection of the graces you are receiving. Do not allow the morning to fade before you acknowledge your Creator. Children, you are so loved by all of Heaven. Do not forsake the Kingdom with your lackadaisical ways. Too often you forget the many graces that have been given to you. How often my Son has forgiven your debts and placed his mercy in your soul. Think often about the treasures stored away in the mundane tasks of your daily duties. Graces can be obtained when a duty is done with joyful surrender to The Lord. Offer Him everything. Then you will be uniting each moment to His Sacred and Merciful Heart. A heart that was pierced open for you. This my children, is the love that I wish for you to focus on when you pray. The more you reflect on the love my Son gave to each of you through His sacrifice the more quickly you will grow in union with Him. I love you my children and I give you my motherly blessings. Know this.

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Children, come to me and do not delay any longer. I come tonight to set a flame in your hearts. Remember how I loved you, even to death. Still I call upon each of my sheep, do not be lost to me. I am the Good Shepherd who laid down his life for his sheep. Anyone who listens to my words and follows my commandments loves me. I will call you to myself on the last day. Children, understand that what you have been given was freely given from my Sacred and Merciful Heart. Truly I tell you, that this generation, I give my mercy and compassion to. You must trust in what I am telling you and repent of your evil ways. Turn to me and surrender everything to me. I will nestle you in the Chambers of my most Merciful and Compassionate Heart. Here I will heal your afflictions and cleanse your many sins. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

10/16/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Children, learn to persevere in your prayer lives. Prayer is necessary for you to grow in wisdom and faith. Prayers that come from hearts full of love and gratitude, please my Son the most. When a child thoughtfully prepares his or her heart ahead of time, their prayers become more fruitful. They do not remain distant only honoring my Son with their lips. Instead they honor Him with everything. Their thoughts, words, and deeds. This my little ones, I wish for you to strive for. Begin each day with a heart that is ready to love. Then you will be ready for whatever The Lord has prepared for you. Surrender yourselves to His Will in your lives. Then unite yourself to His most Sacred and Merciful Heart. A heart that so willingly was pierced open for the salvation of all mankind. This my children, is what my Son has offered to you. Accept this gift with your heart. I love you my children and I am praying for your continued perseverance in prayer. Know this.

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto myself. Do not allow fear to consume your hearts. Fear comes only from the enemy. Place your trust in me. I am the Good Shepherd who laid down his life for his sheep. Whenever you follow my commandments and teach others to do so, are following my teachings. I call upon each of you to help aid one another in a greater prosperity of fruitful teachings. What good does it a man to garnish earthen treasures and lose his freedom in Heaven? Likewise what good does it a man to take up costly pleasures only to watch his brothers perish? This is the questions I will call forth upon this generation. Remain in me and repent. Then you will have nothing to fear. Salvation will be yours. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Do not fear what is to come. This time has not been declared. Rather spend each moment wisely. Reflecting on the lessons you have received. Each lesson is to help you advance in holiness. To grow in virtues as well as faith. To learn the commandment of loving your neighbor. To return your hearts to me. Be ready, for the appointed time is coming. Do not be caught off guard relying on perceived ideas. Only through me, is salvation found. Trust in me. I am mercy. I have compassion for this generation. Return to me with repentant hearts and I will place you in the shelter of my most Sacred and Merciful Heart. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

10/19/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, It is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Be joyful my little ones. Begin each day with glad adoration. When you have a joyful countenance, others will be drawn to that joy. It is with a joyful heart that I want you to teach others about my Son. Remember to always have kindness when approaching your brothers and sisters. Even those that cause you pain or anger. Love them even more. The more you love the more you will resemble my son. Only when you learn to love even those who appear difficult will you fully understand the great gift that was given to each of you. My little ones, sometimes you too can be difficult. Sometimes you may have anger in your hearts. Yet, my Son loved each of you. He bore the sins of every child. Not just a select few. So my children, I ask you tonight to show kindness to everyone you encounter. Be merciful to those who have hurt you. Ask my Son to heal the wounds that exist between you. The more mercy you give to someone, the greater mercy you will receive from my Son. Love conquers all. Remember this. I love you my children and I give you my motherly blessings. Know this.

10/20/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Children, do not take for granted what has been offered to you. Do not forsake the kingdom for your idle pleasures. This my children bears repeating. I love each of you. Children, you are beautiful when you love. Only when you stop loving does your countenance change. The more you become indifferent to the gifts being offered, the harder it will be for you when the many trials come. How will you stand against the mighty winds when you have a faith that is loosely planted? How will you care for each other, if your hearts have become cold? That is why my children, I come again tonight and remind you to not forsake what is being offered to you. Now is the time to repent and change. This is how I wish for you to go forward. To be in union with my Son. To vanquish all evil in His Holy Name. To remove obstacles that you have allowed to enter your souls. Whatever is keeping you from loving your neighbor, must be removed. Children, do not hold grudges. This will gain you nothing but sorrow when my Son comes in judgement. Do not wait for this day, as if you can avoid it. Only my children who are foolish will wait. My Son has mercy for each of you. You must accept His mercy with hearts full of gratitude. Then you must go out and offer that same mercy to your brothers and sisters. Children, this is the only way you can remove the hardness that is in your hearts. Learn to love through the examples given by my Son. Look to Him as you approach each obstacle. Then my children you will act in a way that is pleasing to God. He will bless your efforts. I love you my children and I am praying for you before the throne of God. Know this.

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Children, do not waste time questioning what I have been instructing you. Various topics have been broached. More will come. This is a time of learning and accepting my plan for each of you. It is my will that you follow me. You must put aside everything and return your hearts to me. Yes. I desire your hearts. It is your hearts that I wish to conquer. Too many of my Father's children have become indifferent to me. They have forgotten what was sacrificed for them. That is why I tell you, to put aside what is keeping you from entering into the Chambers of my most Sacred and Merciful Heart. It is through your "yes" that I will enter and change your hearts of stone. Children, the sooner you accept what I am telling you, the quicker I will be able to fill you with graces. Enter into a covenant with my Eucharistic Heart pierced open for you. It is through my Heart, that I give you Bread to eat. Here you will receive life giving waters. A spring will well up in each of your souls, so you can go forth and spread my words. Do not be afraid. I have gone ahead of you, to make a path for you. You only need to follow my voice. I know my sheep and my sheep hear my voice. Those who follow my commandments and keep my words about them are my sheep. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Serve one another, as I have served each of you. It is through the act of serving that one teaches faith. You teach through examples. When you serve another, you are a living testimony of what I have told you. To love one another. Those are the fruits of which I am talking about. To teach by example and learn through love. It is the serving of one another that unifies. Whenever two or more are gathered in my name I am there. I come to bless. I come to sanctify. I place myself in your midst, pouring graces when asked. It is through your prayers that I place you in the Third Chamber of my Heart. When you serve, you advance into the Fourth Chamber. In my Fourth Chamber, I remember what you have done for the least of my people. Here I store your treasure and reward you on the last day. So I ask you to empty yourselves of anger and doubt. Offer all to me and I will bless your efforts. When you have emptied yourself, I myself will fill you with the graces necessary for your salvation. Take what I have given you and go out and serve those less fortunate. No act of kindness is too small or too great. I love you. Know that my graces are sufficient for the day's tasks. Do not be afraid. The time will come when the world will weep. Justice will be brought forth. You my children I have chosen to bring hope to this darkened hour. You are my flowers amidst the thorns. Know that you are loved. I send my Spirit into this world to be with you always. I ask only for you to unite yourself to my will. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

10/23/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Pray my children. Let prayer fill your hearts throughout the day. Pray until prayer becomes a joyful union between you and my Son. Only through prayer, can wars be won. So again I ask you to pray. Be resolute in this. Do not allow interferences to cause you to forgo this important task. Prayer should be your first priority. How can you perform tasks without first seeking The Lord. Pray. My children seek the graces from God to help you. Then whatever your task is, you will have received the graces necessary to make that task fruitful. How many graces are lost because my children did not ask? My Son has said ask and you will receive. Trust in His words. I love you my little ones and I am praying for your efforts. Produce fruits and be a witness to my Son's love. His love is everlasting. Know this.

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Children, be of good cheer. Do not worry about the days labors. Offer everything to me and I will bless your efforts. When you unite even the smallest of deeds I will place them in my Fourth Chamber where they will bear much fruit in the vineyard. I love you. Know that I am blessing even the smallest of offerings. Give me everything. Nothing is lost when united to my will. Even the most hardened of sinners will gain eternal life when they come to me trusting in my mercy. It is my Heart I wish to unite to you. My mercy I wish to pour out for all who are willing. Accept what I am telling you. The time will come when everything I am telling you will come to light. Prepare for this time by offering me everything. I will unite myself to you and place my peace upon your heart. Everything has been given to me by my Father in Heaven. What I am offering you is my gift of salvation. Accept this gift by giving me your “yes” tonight. I will place you in the first chamber of my most Sacred and Merciful Heart. Here I will comfort you. Here I will call you my own. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

10/25/2012 God the Father

Children, it is I your Heavenly Father, Coming tonight to talk about discernment. My children you try to view everything with a quick judgement, rather than taking time to discern the situation. When someone is angry, you are quick to judge why they are angry. When you pray you become impatient waiting for me to answer. You even judge how I have answered you. Discern means to look at a situation from all aspects. To reflect before coming to a conclusion. Discernment involves patience and understanding. Wisdom and reflection. All which are graces that I willingly give to each of my children. Yet you have become impatient. You want to have resolution without surrounding yourself with the virtues to give you a fruitful judgement. Tonight I ask each of you to ask for the graces necessary for discernment. Place all of this in your heart. I love you and I give you my blessings.

Brothers and sisters, is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Tonight I come to ask each of you to reflect on what you are receiving. What are you doing to make good use of your graces. Are you putting to good use the gifts you have received and produce fruits for me, or have you buried your gifts so that when I come you will have nothing to produce for me? I tell you the truth those not producing good fruits will be cut down and thrown into the fire. Take what you have been given and go out among your brothers and sisters. Take care of them. Prosper in good works. Nothing is too small when given with love. Produce fruits and I will bless your efforts. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Children, do not be fooled into thinking this coming hour will be avoided. I tell you the truth, even the Son of Man does not know the hour which the Father has chosen, but this hour will come. Prepare your hearts now. The day will come when I will make all things new again. The birds in the air prepare for the winter months, building nests and storing up food. You my children must also prepare by storing up treasure in Heaven. Prepare as the birds do, by building up the kingdom. No one should be lost to my Heart. Trust in my will for each of you. Did I not tell you that the Kingdom of God is for you? This is truth. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

10/28/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Children, prepare your hearts every day for my Son. He is Lord of all. Be faithful witnesses to the Gospels. Listen to His words and begin to live what you have heard. It is by your fruits that you will be known. Be a light for others to see. Live by example. Let everyone see the goodness of my Son through you. Teach everyone about His mercy. Remind each other of what my Son offered on your behalf's. 10/29/2012 Blessed Mother Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Tonight I ask again for your continued prayers. Pray my children, until prayer becomes a joyful union between you and my Son. How happy are those children who unite themselves to my Son through prayer. Even when strife comes, they have trusting hearts. Do not doubt that my Son hears all of the cries of God's children. No cry goes unnoticed. All of Heaven rejoices at the conversion of even one sinner. Just as all of Heaven prays, when a child weeps. If you only knew how loved you are by all of Heaven, you would never be lost. Reach out in prayer. Do not be frightened. Your Heavenly King has ransomed you with his blood. You only need to accept this gift and rejoice. I love you my little ones. Know that your Angels are prepared to assist you in these coming days. I love you and I give you my motherly blessings. Remove the clutter that is surrounding your heart. How can you hear me calling you, if your heart is full of your things? Shame. Hurt. Anger. Idolatry. My love is real and my testimony is truth. Trust in what I have said. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

11/1/2012 Blessed Mother

11/2/2012 Jesus

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Hear what I am telling you. Regard what you have learned. Each of you have received much. To the degree that each will be able to fully understand. How does one measure their worth. I tell you, with the deeds done for others. You will be measured by your fruits. Nothing that you do for my sake, will go unrecorded. I tell you the truth, I will place all of this in my Fourth Chamber. In my Fourth Chamber, all good deeds are written. Nothing is lost or stolen. Strive to remain in my Fourth Chamber where you will earn treasure in Heaven. A treasure that will neither decay, nor will be eaten by moths. Remember this. 11/3/2012 Jesus

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Listen to this story. One day a farmer was tending his cattle. Everything was going well until a storm approached. The cattle grew weary and began running in all directions. The farmer try as he could, the cattle ran off and he was left with an empty pasture. What lesson can you contrive from this. Could the farmer change the weather. No. Could he alone control his herd. No. He did not prepare for what was to come. The signs were present. He should have prepared and had his cattle seek shelter before the storm arose. I tell you the truth. Prepare now while it is still daylight outside. Soon darkness will come and there will be no time to prepare. Give me your "yes" tonight. That is how I wish for you to prepare. Submitting all things to my most Sacred and Merciful Heart. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Take comfort my children and know that you are loved. There is no sacrifice that is too little or too great when it comes to loving each other. Remember this, look at how my Son loved you. Even to His death on a cross. Children, can anything compare to this love. So I ask you to be joyful. My Son is always in your midst waiting for you to reach out to Him. Give Him your "yes" by accepting your crosses and following Him. Be good stewards with the gifts you are receiving. Always be ready to give to others in need. Look at how your Heavenly Father takes care of each of you. Practice kindness. Be charitable. Children, never hold a grudge. Instead open your hearts to everyone you encounter. Yes, my little ones, even those who cause you much trepidation. A simple act of kindness can change even the most hardened of hearts. Strive for perfection. Then everything you do will be fruitful and gain you merit. I love you and I give you my motherly blessings. Know this.

11/5/2012 Jesus

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Listen to this story. A man walked alone in the desert. Fearing he was to be ambushed, he buried his valuables and hid. Three days and nights passed without harm. The man forgoing his original plan, returned to where his treasure was hidden and found that it had turned into dust. Children, how often do you hide away your treasure out of fear? How many of my children have you hidden from? Stop wasting your talents and give to those in need. I will surely reward your efforts. Love one another, this I have commanded you. Bear much fruit for the kingdom. What value is there if you gain the whole world and lose your soul. Again I ask you, what good does it a man to take from his brother what is rightfully his, and throw it away on squander. You will be judged according to what you did to the least of my Father's children. Know this. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings.

11/6/2012 Jesus

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Children, be weary of false prophets. Do not be fooled about what is to come. Have I not told you already that I come like a thief in the night? Therefor I tell you tonight to prepare your hearts now. Do not wait thinking you have tomorrow. Do not wait thinking I have already come. I will come to judge this world and woe to those children who have not prepared their hearts. I love you. It is my desire to place each of you in the abode of my mercy. It is my mercy I wish to place in your hearts. You must accept this with hearts that are open and ready. Come to me and seek what I have to offer you. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

11/7/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Children, keep the commandments. Remember the words of my Son. "If you love me, you will keep my commandments." So often you become distracted by everything surrounding you. Begin to remove these distractions and instead immesh yourself in the words of my Son. Let your life be an example of your profound love for His laws. How much happier children are when they obey their parents. Begin to open your hearts and listen, he is Lord over all. I love you and I give you my motherly blessings. Know this.

11/8/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Children, be resolute when it comes to obeying the commandments. It is important to teach them to the young. How sad when children do not have knowledge of God's laws. How can their hearts be opened to receiving graces, if they are already preoccupied? Children open your bibles and begin to read each night. Even if it is only a word or two. Soon you will see the fruit that will come into your families. Many blessings and graces will enter homes where scripture is being read. How can you teach your children faith, if you are lacking yourselves? To grow in faith requires that you make a commitment to learn God's teachings. To make your homes a dwelling place for the Lord. Then my children your faith will grow and bear fruit for the kingdom. I love you my little ones and I give you my motherly blessings. Know this.

11/9/2012 Jesus

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Never fear coming to me. Though your sins be scarlet, my mercy is for each of you. How much I desire for you to trust in what I am telling you. Too often you avoid seeking me when you have sinned. You allow your hearts to remain distant and closed. Tonight I ask you to open your hearts to me. I am meek and humble of heart. I have come to cleanse you of your many sins and pour out my mercy upon you. It is in the shelter of my most Compassionate Heart, I wish to place you. Come to me with trusting hearts and you will not be turned away. My mercy is for you. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Do not attempt to stray away from the road set before you, lest you fall into unquenchable flames. Do not go where there is hatred and scorn. Remain in me, as I desire to make my dwelling in you. I am the Good Shepherd who laid down his life for his sheep. Those who keep my commandments are my sheep. Remember this. Follow the path that leads to my heart. I am the gate that leads to eternal life. Whoever comes to me, will not be turned away. I am mercy. You only need to trust in me. I love you and I wish to place you in the Chambers of my most Compassionate and Merciful Heart. Know this. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings.

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto myself. Children do not harbor insult with one another. Always be ready to forgive and show mercy. The more you are merciful to your brothers and sisters, the more I will place my mercy in you. Can a man who has shown great strength and a generous heart (I see a man who looks like a guard in charge of others taking care of them. He is under authority but has compassion for the people around him) not expect to have his master show him even more generosity? (I see a noble man, who is over the guard, watch his actions towards others. The master is touched and rewards his guard) That is why I tell you do not harbor ill will towards anyone. Be quick to forgive and practice mercy. Then when I come to judge this generation, I will first place my mercy in your soul. I will call you unto myself and prepare a place for you. This I tell you now so you can begin to prepare your hearts for the coming hour. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Children practice kindness. Be resolute in this. No one can serve two masters. You will love one and hate the other. My little ones. You must remove everything that causes you to sin. Especially grave sins. I implore you to begin making small sacrifices now. Then when the time comes you will be able to sacrifice from much greater things. My children if you only knew how loved you are, you would be working very hard at preparing your hearts for my Son. Begin to live each day in joyful anticipation of this coming hour. I love you and I give you my motherly blessings. Know this.

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Children, I come tonight to receive each child. Sacrifices and offerings are not what I am asking of you. Instead bring me your willingness to forgive one another and be merciful, just as I have shown you mercy. Blessed are the children who receive these words and act upon them. Surely I will show mercy unto them.

Children, do not labor unnecessarily on my day. Keep holy this day. Use your time to prepare your hearts. Rest in me and I will fill your soul with graces sufficient for the work that lies ahead for you. Do not allow your hearts to be heavy. Lift them up to me. I will lift your burden for I am meek of heart. No longer enter into your day without first offering me your first fruits. Then I will bless everything. My children this I ask.

It is my desire to be united to each of you throughout every moment. Not only when the hour suits you. No. I wish to be with you in every hour. Remain in me as I in you. In your heart I wish to make a dwelling place. It is in the Chambers of my Heart that I wish to place you. United. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

11/13/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Children, remember to keep holy the Lord's day. This my Son has asked of you. Every day you spend focused on your temporal needs, while neglecting your spiritual needs. That is why my Son has asked you to keep this day holy. He wants to place graces into your hearts to nourish you. To feed your souls with His Body and Blood. Rejoice in this my children. You are loved. How happy you will be when you join my Son at the banquet. Here everyone is happy. No longer are they slaves to sin. No longer is time wasted on temporal needs. Every moment is united to my Son, your Savior. Children, this is what I want you to strive for. I love you and I give you my motherly blessings. Know this.

11/14/2012 Jesus

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Children, learn from all I have taught you. Take each lesson and meditate on it's meaning. What can you draw from? Where can you find areas in your life that need to be changed? Come to me and repent of the wrongdoings that have pervaded your soul. How much longer will you remain in darkness? Draw upon my strength. Take my yoke upon you, for my yoke is easy and my burden is light. All I have been given, I offer to each of you. Receive my words into hearts that are steeped in moral conviction. A heart that is pure. A willingness to bring forth fruits. This is what I desire from you. To reveal what you have been taught, so others may come to understand the graces I have waiting for all of my Father's children. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

11/14/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Chosen are you who hear the words of my Son and act upon what you have learned. Each of you are cherished by all of Heaven. No child should be left outside. Go and seek out your lost brothers and sisters. Show them kindness. Bring with you hearts adorned in charity. Offering yourselves as a path to my Son. Each of you are lights, when you follow my Son's commands. The more you love, the greater your light will shine forth. Imagine the light that will come into your darkened world, when all my children learn to love each other. I love you my little ones. Know this.

11/15/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Continue moving forward with your prayer life. Spend time honoring my Son. Look to Him for an example on loving each other. Remember all of this must be practiced faithfully. You must try to be devote with your prayers. Look to the saints who have set an example of true perseverance. My children, their lives where not easy. Many of the saints suffered terribly. They always had my Son close to their hearts. How? By uniting their day to Him. Reaching out to others with mercy and kindness. Making prayer a priority rather than an after thought. Much can be learned by studying the lives of the saints. They too are your siblings. Now they get to spend their eternity in the presence of God. They live in constant union with my Son their Savior. My children, there is no greater joy than this. Work hard at improving your prayer lives. Be solemn when you kneel before my Son. Always try to open your hearts, so you may receive the graces He is placing in your souls. This my children is my desire for you tonight. I love you my children and I give you my motherly blessings. Know this.

11/16/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Children, to become happy you must learn what it is to be happy. Happiness cannot be found in the midst of sarcasm nor can it be found in anger. Happiness cannot be bought or sold. It is the grace that comes from sharing what you have with others. Happiness is a gift from God to his children when they are seeking him. That is why you will always be happy in Heaven. Here you are in the presence of God. Always receiving his gifts. Everyone in Heaven is completely happy, because the are united to the Father. They live in His August presence. They also are happy because they can understand what my Son gave to everyone. His ultimate gift of self sacrifice. When you realize the value in giving to others, you will understand what happiness is. Then my children you will be happy and share your happiness with others. My children I love you and I thank you for listening to me tonight.

11/17/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Children, be charitable with each other. Offer prayers and sacrifices to God on behalf of your brothers and sisters. No sacrifice or prayer is too small. When done with love, all prayers and sacrifices are held in high regard. Children, the same is true when you offer great sacrifices or prayers with little or no love. Only thinking of yourself and your self importance. Those prayers and sacrifices are held in little regard. Children you must begin to open your hearts and let everything you do come from an intention of love. The more you do out of love, the greater fruits you will bear. Children, try to strive for this. How happy you will be when you learn this important lesson. I love you my little ones and I thank you for listening to my words tonight.

11/18/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Children, remember how good it is to follow the laws given to you by your Heavenly Father. All moral guidance are written in those commandments. When you try dutifully to follow God's plan, you will receive the graces of obedience. Namely the gift of knowledge of God's laws. The perseverance to follow them and abide by what The Lord has instructed. To be able to give proper counsel to your brothers and sisters. These are important gifts that help to build up the kingdom here among you my children. Happiness is found in obedience to God's laws. That is why I have come tonight to remind each of you to take obedience with all seriousness. It is the faithful obedient child that brings joy to the Father's Heart. Those children have shown love to their Heavenly Father. They will quickly move through the Chambers of my Son's Heart. I love you my little ones and I thank you for listening to my words tonight.

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Children, do not fear entering the narrow gate. It is the gate which leads to my Heart. To enter into the Chambers of my most Compassionate and Merciful Heart, you only need to give me your "yes". When you accept what I have told you and live according to what you have been taught by me, you are giving me your "yes". Anyone who follows my commandments and lives according to my teachings, already resides in me and I in them. My Heart is the door through which you must enter. Whoever knocks upon my door will surely get in. Ask and you shall receive. Seek and you shall find. All who come to me will never hunger or thirst again. For my Body is true food and my Blood is true drink. What I have told you is truth. This you must accept with your hearts. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings tonight.

11/20/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Children, be resolute in following the commandments. It is through obedience, that you will come to understand true fidelity to God. How can a child tell their Father that they love him and fail to follow his rules? How will that child grow into maturity? You my children have become immature in your faith. Seek the gifts of wisdom and perseverance . Ask your angels to help you learn each commandment and follow them with a loving heart. Temptation will come, but continued perseverance will help you to overcome any temptations. If you struggle, call upon Heaven for assistance. Simply say my Son's name with conviction and trust. Then come to the foot of my Son's cross and open your hearts to Him. Ask for forgiveness when you fall. He will forgive any child who asks. Especially a child who is truly sorry. My children the path to holiness is only difficult when you fail to love. Begin to love and practice obedience. You will see how much easier your journey will be. I love you my little ones and I thank you for listening to my words tonight.

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Be courageous my children as you go forth in your duties. Be faithful witnesses to my Son. In every task offer everything to my Son. He will bless your efforts and give you the graces necessary to do His holy will. Children you must open your hearts to Him tonight. Allow my Son to place graces in your soul. Begin to empty your hearts of the vices that you have been embracing. The quicker you remove these difficulties, the quicker you will see the value that you are. My children you are priceless to God. Remember that you are chosen and cherished by the Father and my Son in union with the Holy Spirit. That is why I am asking you to remove from your heart these obstacles. They are nothing more than diversions that are causing you to fall further away from grace. They are blinding you to the value that you are. If you cannot understand what I am telling you, I implore you to seek my Son with all your heart. Ask Him to forgive you and place His mercy in your soul. Give him your "yes" and begin changing your hearts so that my words become a source of validity in your life. Children, I can assure you that this hour has become wrought with evil. It is pervading your world because you have become blinded. I love you my little ones. I am praying for your conversions and renewal of your baptismal promises. Renounce all that is evil and return your hearts to The Lord. His love is everlasting. I love you my children and I thank you for listening to my words tonight.

11/22/2012 St. Paul

Brothers and Sisters, I come to bring the good news that is Jesus Christ. Who was is and still to come. Brothers and sisters it is I St. Paul, coming tonight to talk once again about faith. Children you must take this journey with all seriousness. Never fail to realize the gravity of your decisions. Every decision carries weight. That is why I have come tonight. To again remind you of the importance of this journey. You must nourish yourselves with the bread of life. No one can continue fighting, if they are lacking nourishment. This is not a battle of flesh and blood alone. You must not only nourish your body, but your soul also. Ask The Lord to enter your hearts tonight. Remain faithful even until the end. Those who remain faithful, will be rewarded. Go and spread what you have heard. Salvation has been won by the blood of the lamb. Happy are the children who acknowledge Christ as their King. Their hearts will not be forlorned. I love you children and I am praying for your conversions of faith.

11/23/2012 St. Paul

Children of God, rejoice and be glad the true King has brought forth salvation for all. Blessed is he who believes. Children, it is I St. Paul, coming tonight to instruct you about faith. Children to grow in faith, you must become learned in the ways of The Lord. You must begin to emulate Him in your every day tasks. This is how you will bear fruit. The fruit of a strong faith. How will you survive the coming days, if your faith is weak? When you are called upon to give testimony or bear witness, where will you draw your strength from? Nourish yourselves with the words of our Lord. His words are truth. Open your hearts and receive His graces, for they are in abundance to those who believe. If you have the faith of a mere mustard seed, then you will do mighty works in the name of The Lord. Bear fruit for the Kingdom, by sowing a strong faith today. Go out and live what you have heard. Teach others the truth. Christ is our Sovereign King, who bore the sins of mankind upon His flesh. Salvation was won by the Blood of the Lamb. Come and eat of the Bread of Life, given up for all mankind. Drink from the Cup of Salvation, poured out upon the hearts of men. Truly, you will find mercy. I love you children and I pray for peace in your hearts and world tonight.

11/24/2012 St. Paul

Children of God, rejoice and be glad. The Son of man has truly risen from the dead. Let us hold this truth. Children, it is I St. Paul, coming tonight to talk yet again about faith. Faith in the risen Lord that is Jesus Christ. True Shepherd and Sovereign King. Begin to live these words with a faith that is awakened in the spirit. Do not allow others to quench your flames. Instead start a fire in their hearts. Walk through this journey as witnesses to the faith given to all who believe. What gifts The Lord has to those who keep his commandments. Gird your loins and follow him, even into battle. Who among you is willing to sacrifice for the faith? Will you be willing to lay down your life for our King? Yet, our King did this for us. He bore our sins and upon his flesh bore our transgressions. He is the Paschal Lamb. Children rejoice in this, because of His love your freedom has been won. He was victorious over death. Through Him all can be saved. Trusting in His saving power is faith. Grow your faith by trusting in The Lord. I love you children and I pray for your return to faith. May peace reign in your hearts and world tonight.

11/25/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Children, remain close to my Son in these coming days. Do not wander aimlessly. My Son is awaiting your return to His Heart. His mercy is ready for every child who asks. So ask my children. Seek The Lord with hearts full of hope. Trust in His mercy. Believe in what He has told to you. His words are everlasting. I love you my children and I give you my motherly blessings. Know this.

11/26/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Be faithful in all things my children. Persevere in your prayer lives. Let every prayer be a joyful union between you and my Son. Children, be ever diligent in this time of grace. Soon you will be living in a time of trial. You will not be ready to undergo such trials, if you do not prepare your hearts now. So I again ask each of you to be diligent in all matters of faith. Especially concerning the commandments. Obedience to God's laws is essential when forming lives of faith in your families. How quickly the devil tries to deceive my children. How easily breaking God's laws can be if you are not diligent about keeping them. Strive to be perfect, just as your Heavenly Father is perfect. Then my little ones your Heavenly Father will see your efforts and bless you. I love you my little ones and I thank you for listening to my words tonight.

11/27/2012 Blessed Mother

When you surrender your hearts to my Son everything will become a joy for you. Children, I tell you this so that you may begin to give your "Yes". Giving your "yes" is surrendering yourself to my Son. You must free yourself from everything that is separating you from him. Through thoughts or deeds you must refrain from soiling your garments with the stain of sin. Children you do not know when my Son will come. So prepare for His arrival now. Begin by readying yourselves through the sacraments. Work hard and be faithful stewards of the gifts you are receiving. Love everyone you meet and harbor no ill thoughts. Then my Son will show mercy to you. The more you give of yourselves the closer you will resemble my Son. This is the perfection I desire for you to strive for. Perfect charity. I love you my children and I thank you for listening to my words tonight.

Instead renounce all evil and place your trust in my Son, your King. He holds the gift of everlasting life. Children, this is the gift that has been offered to you. Take this with hearts full of gratitude. What my Son has freely given you, should be freely received. First, you must devoid yourselves of everything that is keeping you from accepting this gift of mercy. Then come and ask for forgiveness. Place yourself at the mercy of my Son. He is ever merciful. My children the sooner you begin to change the quicker you will see the glory of God. Why? Because my little ones, your eyes will be opened and you will no longer be asleep. I love you my little ones and I give you my motherly blessings tonight. Thank you for listening to my words.

11/30/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Children, pray from your hearts. Begin to renew your faith. Especially through the sacraments. Children, you must renounce satan and all his pomps and circumstances. Remove everything that keeps you far from my Son's Heart. Accept my Son and all of His graces. Trust in His divine will in your life. Take each moment and reflect on His teachings. Ponder everything carefully, focusing on those teachings that you may be struggling with. If you are holding a grudge, then ponder what my Son said in his sermon on the mount. If you struggle with vanity, then focus on my Son's face that was badly bruised and bloodied for your sake. If you are struggling with impurity, remind yourselves how my Son was scourged for your sins of the flesh. If money is your difficulty, then think of His story of the widow who gave all she had. My children you must begin to read the bible every day. These teachings are there for you to grow and prosper in faith. I love you my little ones. Begin now making my Son's words a priority in your life. His words are truth. This truth will pierce your hearts that have become hardened. Pray for the gift of perseverance so the evil ones will not tempt you to give up and return to your sinful ways. I am praying for each of you to transform your lives and give my Son your "yes". Today you do not lack for material needs, but you are deprived of nourishment. Return to my Son and He will give you life giving bread to eat. He will give you a drink from His cup of salvation. Make reparation to His Sacred Heart, by praying with hearts fixed on His passion and death. My children, this sacrifice was done with love. He gave everything He had for each of you. Now this very gift is being denied. My little ones do not offend my Son with your continued disrespect. Only through repentant hearts can my Son place His mercy in your souls. You are children of the light. You belong to the Heart of your Heavenly Father, and the Heart of my Son who redeemed you. No longer should you accompany yourselves with avarice. Remove everything that causes you to fall. If you are struggling with immorality then pray for the virtue of chastity. If you perpetuate falsehoods then pray for courage to speak only the truth. I love you my little ones and I place each of you in my mantle of motherly love. Know this.

Not just with words and deeds, but with an ardent desire to please Him. Offer small sacrifices for your brothers and sisters. Always presenting them with a joyful countenance. Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Children, do not let even an hour pass without opening your heart to my Son. His graces are necessary for your conversions. He will break your hardened hearts, if you first open them by giving Him your "yes". Yes, to accepting His divine will for you. Yes, to allowing Him to enter your hearts. Yes, to repenting of your sins. And yes, to receiving Him Body and Soul. This my children are the means to salvation. By giving your "yes" to My son in each moment throughout your day. Unite yourself to Him through prayer. Give thanks for His mercy. Offer praises for His great glory. He is Lord over all. My children, every knee should bend and tongue confess this truth. If only you knew of the true joy that awaits you in the kingdom, you would put on sack cloth and ashes repenting for the whole world, just as in the days long ago. My children, when will you be ready to make this commitment? When will you desire the salvation of your brothers and sisters? None of God's children should be lost to His Merciful Heart. You must become a light in this darkened hour. Which of my children will become selfless for the salvation of souls? My children, I ask for warriors to take up their crosses and do battle against the enemy. I will watch over you and protect you with my mantle of motherly love. I love you my children. Contemplate what I am asking of you. My children every prayer carries much weight when prayed with a heart that is pure from evil. Repent that you may have hearts that are pure. Son's birth remember why he came into the world. Because the Father loves his children. All of you. He loved you so much, that he sent Jesus into the world so you might be saved. Yes, children you have been ransomed through the blood of my Son. He came into this world to free mankind from his debt of sin. Still you always have free will. You can choose to accept this gift, or you may choose to walk away. Today you are choosing against allowing your children to live. Life is a gift from God. My children, you must repent from this evil and return to my Son. Ask for forgiveness and mercy. No sin is greater than Gods mercy, just as no sinner is lost to God's tender Heart. Children, you need only ask and mercy will be given. You only need to seek the will of my Son, and He will lead you to His Heart. I love you my children and I place you in the mantel of my motherly love. Know this.

Even if His will brings about trials. Every trial is a lesson in love. It is through the cross my Son bore that salvation was won. Persevere in accepting trials as well as blessings. Everything that comes from God is for the purpose of teaching His children love. Self sacrifice and perseverance. Teachings that will help guide you on your path towards His heart. I love you my little ones. I am praying for each of you before the throne of God. Know that you are loved. My children, I give you my motherly blessings. Know this.

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Children, be wary of those who teach you falsehoods. Do not allow yourselves to be lulled back to sleep. What they offer you are false pleasures, that only corrupt the good in my Father's children. Remain faithful to my Word. Believe in what I have told you. My words are everlasting. Children, do not worship false idols. No longer take your Lord's name in vain. You are to honor your Father and Mother. Do not steal. Do not commit adultery. These are the laws given to you by my Father. If you love me then keep my Father's laws. His commandments should be written in the hearts of all of his children. You belong to the Father. Brothers and sisters, you do not belong to this world. You belong to me. To my most Sacred and Merciful Heart. You were ransomed through my blood. Everything, I offered on your behalf. No longer are you slaves to sin. Renounce these evils and return to my Heart. Place everything at my feet and I will bless your efforts. I am slow to anger and quick to forgive your many debts. Simply repent of the evils that you have committed. Stop profaning my name. Keep holy the Lord's day. Then my children you will truly be called children of the most high. When you obey the commandments, you are living in the light. No longer will you fear the darkness because I am the light. Whoever believes in me shall have eternal life and I will call them to myself on the last day. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings.

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King. Come to me all who labor and I will give you rest. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light. Brothers and sisters, I ask you, who among you is ready to accept my will for you with open hearts? Receive this question with great discernment. To accept my will is to trust in my providence for you. It is my desire that a soul trusts me completely. It is through trust, that I can unite myself to that soul. When you trust in my mercy, I can pour open my graces and enkindle a fire of love in a soul's heart. First, you must accept my will by giving me your "yes". Give me your "yes" with a heart that is ready to make a firm purpose of amendment. Be willing to renew your baptismal promises. Restore your families to my Heart through prayer and repentance. Whoever asks, will receive. Whoever seeks, will find. Those who wish to follow me, must obey the commandments. It is through obedience, that trust will be found. How easy it is for a child to love a parent and still be untrustworthy. I ask each of you to be trustworthy by following the commandments. Then you will understand how important trustworthiness is. How happy you will be, when you are seated at the banquet. Prepare your hearts now. Ready yourselves by listening to His words. His words are truth. I love you my little ones and I seek only your happiness. But my dear children, you have become lost. You no longer seek happiness from God. You seek the pleasures of your things. These are nothing more than vain idols. Do not put your idols ahead of your true King. Only God should take reign in your hearts. I love you my little ones and I am praying for your conversions. Know this.

12/28/2012 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Children, carefully ponder the lessons you have been receiving. What truths are you placing firmly in your heart? Let the words of my Son take root in your souls. My children, you must carefully discern where you are at. Look closely at what you have chosen. Your choices will give you insight as to where you are, on your journey of faith. How do you spend your time? Is it wisely uniting yourself to God, or are you wasting your time with idle pleasures? What are you placing before your souls? Good and holy things, like devout readings and prayers for your siblings, or are you placing your souls in jeopardy with the worship of graven images or fornication? What you allow to enter your hearts will either nourish you, or corrupt your soul. Children, these are difficult questions I am asking of you tonight. But my little ones, you must recollect and take account of where you are at. I desire for each of you to grow in holiness. This is a choice you must make with thoughtful discernment. Those children who travel without light will quickly become lost. Remove the darkness from your hearts, with a thorough examination of your heart. Then repent of your errors and seek the mercy of my Son. Surely He will place His mercy into the heart of a repentant sinner. Ask my children and you will receive. Seek the heart of my Son and you will find not only His Heart, but His mercy too. I love you and I am placing each of you in the mantle of my motherly love. Know this.

The more you ready yourselves, the easier each trial will be. I love you my little ones. I am praying for your conversions of faith. Lo the night is coming quickly, you who follow the Lord's commands will remain in the light. Be obedient to God in all things. Then your lampstands will shine bright when The Lord comes. 12/30/2012 Jesus

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Do not forsake the kingdom, for your vain idols. This is my teaching tonight. Where do you place your efforts? Are you trying to win the world? I tell you, this world could fade away. Are you putting your efforts in things? Have I not said already, your things will turn to dust before your eyes. Then what? Will you put your efforts into vanity? How quickly will your youth pass you by. Put your efforts in what will last. Build a treasure in Heaven. Here no one will lose what they have sown. Begin to see, that you are more than mere body. You are both body and soul. The body ages and returns to dust. It is your spirit that lives on. So again I ask you, are you willing to forsake the kingdom for your vain idols? Repent of your wrong doings. I will forgive any child who comes to me with a contrite heart. The Chambers of my Heart are open and ready to receive any child who comes to me resolute on giving me their "yes". Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. Children, be careful during these darkened hours. Do not be led astray. Better to forgo desires, than to risk salvation. Many times you are tempted by the devil. Begin removing items that can cause you to become tempted to sin. Children, all sin is grave because it removes your heart from God. You choose to go against His commandments. When you do fall, you must immediately ask for forgiveness. Go often to confession, if you are struggling with a certain vice. There my Son will forgive you and give you the graces necessary to overcome those struggles. Children, the more you frequent the sacraments, the better you armor yourself when the devil comes. A great battle exists between the devil and my children. That is why I ask you to armor yourself with virtues. Frequent the sacraments. Read scripture in your homes and follow the commandments. Then you will not fall into satan's traps. I love you my little ones and I am giving you my motherly blessings. Know this.

Even when you sin, God loves you. He came into this world to forgive you. To teach you that His love is everlasting. That His mercy is enduring for all ages. Children, you must learn to free yourselves from the bondage of sin, by following the commandments. You must practice holy virtues. Living your life first for God, and for the salvation of each other. All of this stems from love. A love that my children must learn. A love that has been shown to you by your Father in Heaven. Offered for you by my Son your Savior and revealed through the Holy Spirit. This my children is what these lessons are about. To help you understand how to return to your Father's heart. To unite yourself to my Son, through His death and resurrection. I say this because His death won your freedom. His resurrection gave you new life. Now you can enter freely into the gates of Heaven because my Son is the gate. Children, it really comes to you giving your "yes" to God. A full and complete "yes". Accepting His will in all things, whether joyful or difficult. Your Father loves each of you. He gives each child a unique set of gifts. Gifts to bear fruit for the kingdom. But my children, you can use a gift for its purpose or you can use a gift wastefully. I ask you tonight to ponder what your gifts are. Truthfully see if you are using your gifts for the salvation of souls (by) glorifying God. Ask the Holy Spirit to reveal what your gifts are. Invoke His name with glad adoration for assisting you. If you only knew how loved you are my children, your voices would become a chorus of praise and thanksgiving. Never would you mourn, because you would understand God's will. You would see the value of each trial and the merit that your prayers would bring. I love you my little ones and I pray for your return to the sacraments. I pray for your families to become united to my Son. I stand before the throne of God interceding for all of my children. Know this. I love you and I give you my motherly blessings.

1/4/2013 Jesus

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Children, listen to this story. There was a man settling debts. Two men approached him. One man offered to pay his debt in full. The other offered to pay only half his debt, with a promise to pay the rest later. Now when the debt collector came around again the man who owed the rest of his debt hid. He had spent the money he owed. Rather than admit what he had done he tried to hide. Children do not hide when you have done wrong. Come to me and I will understand. Am I not a just judge? Have I not been merciful with each of you? Any child who comes to me with a contrite heart will be forgiven. What do you think the debt collector would have done if this man had told the truth? Did he not already allow him another month to pay the remaining debt. I tell you the truth. I will come and open the hearts of all men. Nothing will remain hidden. All truth will be laid bare before me. Come to me and do not be afraid for I am merciful. Slow to anger and quick to forgive. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

1/5/2013 Blessed Mother

Children, it is I your Heavenly Mother, my dear little ones. My children have faith. Do not become forlorned. Your Heavenly Father loves each of you. You are unique to His heart. Remember He told you that you are chosen and cherished. How special you are. Each child has been given a special angel to assist him or her on their journey. Use your angels to help you as you navigate your choices. Ask them to assist you with your prayers. Especially during the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. It is here, that my Son is revealed through the union of bread and wine. My children ponder this sacrifice. Ponder what you are witnessing at each Mass. How my Son loved you to His death. How He freely bore the sins of mankind upon His flesh. All with a heart that was fixed upon your salvation. A heart that was pierced open to cleanse you from the stains of sin. My children, you are always present in the heart of my Son and your Heavenly Father. All of Heaven is praying for your conversions of faith. Pray for each other. Offer everything to my Son. Give alms to the poor so you will gain treasure in Heaven. I love you my little ones and I give you my motherly blessings tonight.

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Children, enter into the Chambers of my Sacred and Merciful Heart. It is in the Chambers of my Heart that salvation was won. In each Chamber, I call upon you to enter. Simply giving me your "yes" I will place you in the First Chamber. How quickly you forget the simplicity of entering into my Heart. Show me a true contrition for your sins, and I will place you in my Second Chamber. My mercy will envelope your soul and my grace will strengthen you. It is through your faults, that you have abandoned your baptismal promises. Yet in my Second Chamber, all of your sins are forgiven and promises renewed. In my Third Chamber, I place your prayers. All of your petitions are here. How much I desire each of you to come to me. Ask and you will receive. Seek and you shall find. Here I prepare a place for you. In this Chamber, I hold all of your secrets and unite them to my will. Finally, I reserve my final Chamber, for those children who heed my commands and love their neighbor. Whatsoever you do for a brother or sister, is placed in my Fourth Chamber. Here your treasure is kept. All good deeds are remembered and I will personally take account on the last day. Nothing will be lost or stolen in my Heart. Here all merits become fruits for the Kingdom. It is in this final Chamber, that saints are made. I tell you this because in my Fourth Chamber, a soul has learned what love is. They have accepted my will and given me their "yes". They have trusted my mercy and have been delivered from their sin. All of the graces they have received, they turned into fruits for the Kingdom. They understood that every good deed done with a loving heart, yields merits. That is why I tell you again, that in my Fourth Chamber, saints in Heaven are made. I love you and I desire for you to strive to enter all Four Chambers of my most Sacred and Merciful Heart. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

My little ones, do you not yet see how loved you are? My children, you are loved above all things. God has lifted up each of you in His Heart. You are chosen and cherished. 1/15/2013 St. Michael Chosen people, it is I St. Michael, coming to sound the trumpets and awaken mankind from his slumber. Hear me oh mankind. You who slumber so. Whilst you not watch even a single hour. How quickly you fall asleep, even when your hearts should be awaiting. The Bridegroom will come and call out to His people. Look a place has been prepared for you, but instead you have remained asleep and have not prepared your hearts for the appointed hour. Children, the hour is nigh when you should begin to ready yourselves. Gird yourself with holy virtues. Ask for the gifts of wisdom and fortitude. You must prepare now for the battle that lies ahead. The winnowing fork is at the threshing floor. Do not be caught off guard. I love you and I place my shield before any child who calls upon my assistance.

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Never fear coming to me, for I am meek and humble of heart. Tonight I wish to teach you about love. To understand what love is, you must first ask yourself how do you view your brother and sister. When you approach them, are you kind and compassionate or are you quick to judge their appearance or actions? How you approach someone begins to foretell how you know and understand what love is. Love is patient. Love is kind. Love never shows deceit or causes sorrow. Love is selfless and love entreats others to bring about the goodness in all. To begin to understand love, you must empty yourself of anger. You must remove hatred and scorn. You must have a distaste of anything that causes shame to cover another's name. You should avoid all gossip and never partake in the gossip or slander of another. Always remember, what you do for others you have unwillingly done to me. That is why I have told you, all will be laid bare. Every deed will be brought to light so be certain that your deeds are of noble value. If you have committed the slightest infraction, go to that brother or sister immediately and ask for forgiveness. Then my children you will learn what love is. The more you strive for love, the more love will be laid out before you. It is my desire that you love one another as I have commanded you. The good deeds you bear will be placed in my Fourth Chamber. It is in my Fourth Chamber, that your deeds will bear fruit. Nothing is forgotten in my Heart. Children, begin to approach each other with kindness. Practice patience and mercy. Be willing to offer yourself and you will become selfless. The more selfless you are the more you will have love. I love you and I give you my priestly blessings. Know this.

Chosen people, it is I St. Michael, comings sound the trumpet and awaken mankind from his slumber. Slumber no more children, a new day is coming upon you. How quickly your time passes. Stay awake and slumber no more. The time is upon you when everyone will see the great and joyful day. Triumphant will He be when the Lamb takes His seat upon the throne. He will set forth a decree to all nations. Judgement will come upon all who inhabit the earth. All who are above and below will also be judged. Fair and just is the Lamb who sits in the seat of judgement. To the right will go every child who obeyed the commandments and kept God's laws in their hearts. They have washed their robes with the blood of the lamb. Their sins are forgiven them. To the left will go the scoffers. The evil doers who ignored the warnings and refused to follow the Lamb. Their misdeeds are written on their fore heads. Woe to those children. Mankind must prepare it's hearts before the day of judgement arrives. Become salts of the earth. Living in true union with the Son of God. He bore upon His flesh your transgressions. By this, was mankind remediated of his sins. All glory be given to the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of mankind. Mercy has been given to you. I love you and place my shield before any child who calls upon my assistance.

Brothers and sisters, it is I your Heavenly King, calling each of you unto my Heart. Do not fear entering into the Chambers of my most Sacred and Merciful Heart. My mercy is for every child who asks. You only need to trust and mercy will be given to you. That is why I have said, ask and you shall receive. Seek and you shall find. It is my desire that you come to me no matter how scarlet your sins may be. Did I not say that my mercy is greater than all of your sins? Children, I did not bear the weight of the cross for a selected few. I bore the weight for all of mankind's sins. No one was excluded. It is only through your lack of trust, that you do not receive mercy. But this is not my desire. I wish for all of my Father's children to trust in my mercy. To unite themselves to my most Sacred and Merciful Heart. Are you willing to accept what I am telling you tonight? No longer do you need to hang onto your guilt. No longer do you need to hide from my eternal gaze. Simply come to me and place your wrongdoings at my feet. With hearts that are contrite, I will shower you with graces.
